Rules and Regulations of Craibstone Golf Course and Marshall Leisure

Players are the invited persons paying annual fees to use Craibstone Golf Course and all the associated facilities i.e. Clubhouse, Driving Range/Short Game Area.

Fees are to be paid in full by 28th February, or by the monthly Direct Debit Agreement, which spreads your annual fee across twelve months. Non-compliance with the direct debit agreement shall see your playing rights suspended until either your agreement is paid in full or back on schedule. No refunds will be given to anyone resigning after the 4th of May.

All players are reminded they must check in at the golf office even if booking with the On-Line booking system and have their membership card swiped at all times, invited guests must always present themselves at the golf office before play and the appropriate fees paid before play, this is the responsibility of the inviting player.

Players wishing to play golf before the standard first tee off time must always book in advance as there will be no guarantee this is acceptable.

Please adhere to the Golf Rules and Golfing Etiquette at all times and especially the rules on repairing pitch marks and replacing divots and raking bunkers AND SLOW PLAY. (Refer to any general good golf rule book.)

No golf shoes to be worn in area of the Brimmond Bistro.

Alcohol cannot be consumed during a round of golf unless previously arranged with the Golf Management.

A Dress Code is in operation (see notices or website) and any player not adhering may be requested to leave.

All players should have a valid golf handicap, if not they may be requested to take an ability test with the resident Golf Professional. Club Competition Rules are displayed on relevant notice boards and/or entry forms.

Any complaints or queries must be directed to the Golf Operations Manager in the proper manner either verbally or in writing. Any further grievance arising should be placed in writing to the owners.

The management reserve the right to restrict the total playing numbers and type of player. An applicant would be informed of any such restrictions which may affect an application and may be placed on a waiting list.

The management reserves the right to refuse a) any application for persons to enrol with Marshall Leisure at Craibstone Golf Course as a golf fee payer and/or b) any person eligible to be a guest or use any of the facilities and is not obliged in either case to provide a reason.

You are permitted to use the facilities (ie the golf course, practice areas, Brimmond Bistro and others) at Craibstone Golf Course only with the permission of the proprietor or his representatives and he/they reserve the right to withdraw or suspend this permission at any time without reason. If this permission is permanently withdrawn prior to 31st May, Marshall Leisure will refund the proportion of your fees for the remainder of the year from that date. Thereafter no refund will be given.

A list of persons not permitted to use the facilities (under suspension or permanently) is available on request.

The management have the right to implement, apply or change any of the above rules at their discretion without prior notice.

We sincerely hope you enjoy your golf and the appropriate facilities. Thank you for your support and we look forward to a long and happy relationship with you all.
